

www.MyGuitarLessons.co.uk

Bohemium Like You - The Dandy Warhols - L6

Easy song to play, using barre chords and moving your pinkie within it. If your unfamiliar with this very popular song give it a listen on You Tube first of all.

Intro

```

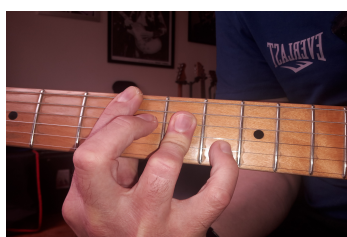

E|-----|
B|-----|
G|-----| x2
D|-----|
A|-----|
E|-7-7-7-7-7-9-10-10-10-10-10-5-5-5-5-5-0-0-0-0-0-|

```

| B                                                  | D | A | E |                                                      |
|----------------------------------------------------|---|---|---|------------------------------------------------------|
| E 7--7--7--7--5--5--5--5--5--5--5--7--9--9--9--    |   |   |   |                                                      |
| B 7--7--7--7--7--8--8--7--5--5--5--5--9-10-10-10-- |   |   |   | Repeats throughout the song.                         |
| G 8--9--9--8--7--7--7--7--6--7--7--6--9--9--9--9-- |   |   |   |                                                      |
| D 9--7--7--9--7--7--7--7--7--5--5--7--9--9--9--9-- |   |   |   | Occasionally the pinkie stays on the 1 st |
| A 9--9--9--9--5--5--5--5--7--7--7--7--7--7--7--7-- |   |   |   | position.                                            |
| E 7--7--7--7--5--5--5--5--5--5--5--5--5--5--5--5-- |   |   |   |                                                      |

B chord with pinkie

D chord with pinkie

Homework;

Its in the key of B, but its easy to transpose into different places just by moving the whole pattern up on down the fretboard. Try playing it in A. If you can do that try it in C, then D, then E.