

www.MyGuitarLessons.co.uk

Fretboard Notes ~ Challenge

So you know all of the fretboard notes? Most guitarists could work their way through the E strings and the A, but when put under pressure could you name the note? This exercise is designed to assist you to think quickly across the entire fretboard, without too much latency for 'thinking time'.

Ok so fold the page at the dotted line so you can't see the fretboard chart. No cheating now! Write your answers next to the numbered question

You have 10 seconds to answer each of the following 'My Guitar Lessons' questions;

1. The 2nd fret of the G string is:
2. The 12th fret of the B string is:
3. The 5th fret of the G string is:
4. The 3rd fret of the B string is:
5. The 7th fret of the A string is:
6. The 15th fret of the D string is:
7. The 10th fret of the A string is:

How did you do? Tricky hey! Fold back the page and check your answers. If you got them all correctly, you should see a pattern emerge.

Approved to teach guitar by The Criminal Records Bureau.